

During the afternoon and evening 11th of June 1999 very strong thunderstorm with heavy rain showers, hail and very strong wind hits big part of continental Croatia.
Thunderstorm came from Rijeka direction pass south from Zagreb and then continued in the direction east from Zagreb. Maximum measured height of Cb was 17 km.

Satellite image in IR spectra 18 UTC.	Radar image PPI from Bilogora (262 m agl, 45°53', 17°12') 15.47 UTC, elevation 2°, radius on figure 120 km.

ALADIN forecast is not available at the moment.